Old School's mission is to create opportunities for generations to connect through the arts with the purpose of relieving conditions attributable to being aged, including social isolation and other mental or physical health conditions by providing intergenerational programs that foster interaction between seniors and young people in schools and in the community, such as arts workshops, pen-pals projects, and performances. In addition, Old School strives to advance the public's appreciation of the arts by providing high-quality artistic performances in public places, senior citizens' homes, churches, community centers, and educational institutions.
